MTC SCOUT ACTIVITIES

How is Cub Scouting Organized?

Pack Organization Chart

The Den

The Cub Scout pack is divided into several smaller groups called dens. Typically, a den has six to eight youth and meets two or three times a month. Den meeting activities vary based on the age of youth. Members of a den usually progress through Scouting together.

The Cub Scout ranks are organized by grade or age, so your child's den will be part of the rank specific to their grade. A pack may have more than one den for a rank. For example, if your pack has 16 first graders, there will be at least two Tiger dens. Here are the ranks:

- ◆ Lions - Kindergarten. Lions must have an adult partner who attends all Cub Scout functions with them.
- ◆ Tigers - First grade. Tigers must have an adult partner who attends all Cub Scout functions with them.
- ◆ Wolves - Second grade.
- ◆ Bears - Third grade.
- ◆ Webelos - Fourth grade.
- ◆ Arrow of Light - Fifth grade.

The Bobcat rank will be what each grade works on first, then they work to complete seven fun "adventures" to earn their rank badge. Adventure activities are done at den meetings, at home and on field trips and outings. At the end of the school year, Cub Scouts graduate and move up to the next rank.

While den meetings include games, skits and other activities that are fun for the kids, program delivery is the main goal. Youth participate in activities and work on projects that are related to an adventure and that help them learn the skills they need to progress in rank. Youth also prepare to do their part in the monthly pack meeting.

The Pack

All of the dens together make up the pack. Typically, packs meet monthly. These pack meetings bring together youth from every den, their leaders, and their families for a large-scale event that showcases all that the kids have learned and done in their individual den meetings. Such a gathering gives the kids a larger experience beyond their own den. It also helps them see how their individual activities fit into the bigger Cub Scout program.

Jump-start your family's year of Scouting by attending a Shooting Sports Day!

This fun and exciting event gives your Scout the chance to experience one of the most popular aspects of Scouting - shooting sports. While the activities are enjoyable, safety is our top priority.

Each range is supervised by trained Range Safety Officers to ensure a secure environment for all participants. This event is open to all Scouts.

For more information about Shooting Sports Days including the date, time, location, and activities please visit the Council's website at:

ADDITIONAL YEAR-ROUND

FUN OPPORTUNITIES FOR CUB SCOUTS

PINEWOOD DERBY

A parent and youth project in which you build a race car made from a block of wood. This is one of the most popular events of a Cub Scout's year. Most packs conduct the derby race annually.

BLUE AND GOLD BANQUET

Scouting's birthday party for Cub Scouting, usually held during February. Most often it is a seated dinner, but sometimes it is covered-dish supper. A special program or entertainment is customary.

ADVENTURE CAMP

Adventure Camp is a fun-filled week of adventure for Cub Scouts who will be rising 1st - 5th graders. The Middle Tennessee Council holds the Monday through Friday Day Camps in various geographical locations throughout the Council. The camps offer various types of activities which may include archery, arts and crafts, BBs, field sports, nature, Scout skills and many other themed activities.

FAMILY SCOUTING AT CUBWORLD

Our Family Scouting Camp is a two night camp designed for rising 1st – 5th grade (and an accompanying adult) to experience the great outdoors, activities and campout at Boxwell Reservation Cubworld.

What kinds of activities will you get to do while at camp? Swimming, archery, BB shooting sports, belt loop activities, campfire programs, and sports are just a few of the activities available throughout the camp. During your free time, you may hike around camp or explore Cubworld's Native American Village, Cub-A-Lot Castle, Cubworld Fort; and the brand new Pirate's Cove. Oh, and don't forget to bring your fishing pole. We are on Old Hickory Lake at Boxwell Reservation, located off Hwy. 109 in Lebanon.

You will sleep under the stars on cots in a platform tent. All you need to provide are the linens. Restrooms are centrally located around camp, and you will enjoy breakfast, lunch, and dinner in our air-conditioned dining hall.

SCOUTING FOR FOOD

Food drive held to benefit local food banks. Part of our program is to participate in community service projects.

THE ADVANCEMENT PLAN

Advancement is the process in which Cub Scouts earn badges and awards, learn new skills and expand their horizons as they go. The Cub Scout advancement program is based on adventures, which are themed collections of activities. Many of these activities will be done as a group, with the den or with the whole pack. Other activities are meant to be done at home as a family.

The activities built into the adventures include sports, games, field trips, service projects, crafts, and leadership challenges. All of these are designed to achieve Scouting's aims: character development, citizenship training, and personal fitness. As a youth progresses through the Cub Scout ranks, the activities become more challenging to match their increasing skills and abilities.

NEW SCOUT BASIC NEEDS

Yearly Registration Fee and Other Costs:

- ♦ Scouting America - A yearly membership fee is collected by the National Council.
- ♦ Pack Dues - The amount varies by pack. Some packs charge annual dues that include National Scouting America yearly registration fee. Each pack has its own process for handling advancement and activity costs. Some include the costs in their annual dues, some raise the funds by product sales, and some have families that cover the cost of the specific activities in which they participate. Check with your Cubmaster to get a breakdown of the annual fees.

Handbooks:

Every Scout needs a handbook. They are specific to their Den and grade level. Check with your local Scout shop for prices.

Uniform:

The uniform and its cost vary by program for both youth and adult. Every pack has a standard for uniforms. Please consult with your unit leader for more information.

(Go to page 9 in this book for the general uniform check list)

Congratulations and welcome to the Pack! Now that you've joined the Pack, you are likely asking "what do I need to do to get started?" Scouting is a very inexpensive activity for your family to be involved in. On the left are items you will want to consider as you begin. We hope you have a wonderful time with your kids throughout their time in Scouting!

Check with your Cubmaster to find out how your pack handles the items on the left.

CUB SCOUTING FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

What is the first thing I need to do with my new Cub?

Start working on the Bobcat rank requirements on page 7 in this booklet as well as your Cub Scout handbook. This advancement includes Scout Oath, Scout Law, Cub Scout Motto, Cub Scout Sign, Cub Scout Handshake, and Cub Scout Salute.

What do I do if my Cub leader doesn't call me about the time and location of the Den meetings?

Call the Cubmaster to find out where and when each Den holds their meetings. The Middle Tennessee Council does not track Cub pack activities, as they're planned on a local level.

What if I can't attend all the events that the Cub Pack has scheduled?

Focus on the events that interest you and your Cub. In Scouting, we want to provide a balance of activities that can work with your schedule. The more you participate, the more fun and achievements your Scout will earn, but Scouting does not require you to attend all activities.

What are the parent's responsibilities?

Each kid in kindergarten(Lion) or first grade(Tiger) is required to have an adult partner present with them at all pack and den events. All of the youth will have projects that must be completed at home. Parents of all the youth should plan to attend pack meetings and witness their kid's advancement progress and awards. Cub Scout camping is "family style", and a parent is required to attend.

Where do I purchase my books and uniforms?

The Council operates several Scout Shops across the Council. Their staff will be glad to assist you with all the necessary material for your Scouting experience. See page 9 of this booklet for a list of shop locations and new member checklist.
